

Partitioning material

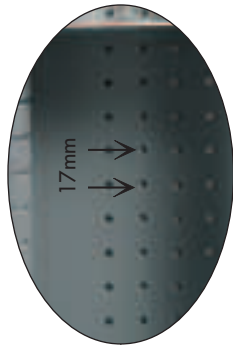

DRAWER CABINETS

Internal layout

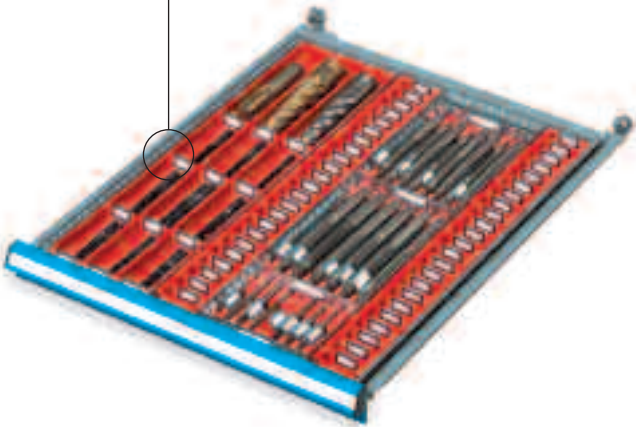

The slotted internal side walls and perforated bottom with 17 mm increments (1 Eh unit) make it simple and rational to divide the whole volume of the drawer and make the best possible use of it. A complete range of partitioning material allows a wide variety of materials, from the simplest to the most delicate, to be stored and ensures they remain in perfect condition over time.

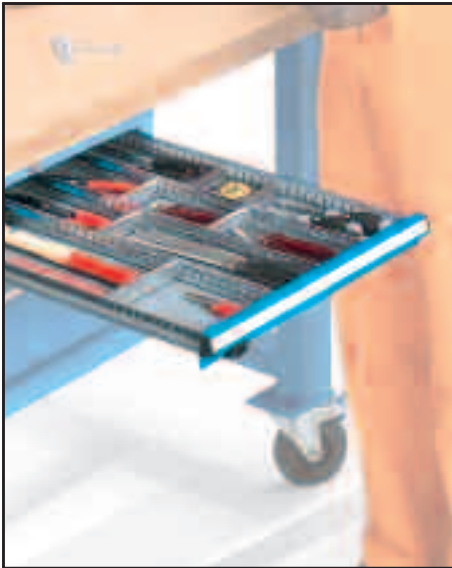

Detail of slotted internal side wall

Detail of slotted internal perforated bottom

INTERNAL DRAWER LAYOUTS

Internal layout including slotted and plain partitions

Internal layout including troughs

Internal layout including an additional drawer